MEDAL-MATCHES!

After having defeated the Swiss, Team Sweden is awaiting Team Finland in the final. Today Switzerland and Czech Republic are competing for bronze. It's clear who the favourites of both games are – Sweden is snatching for gold and Switzerland for bronze. It's the question, if they were able to come out on top. Their competitors will surely try to stop them.

Pick ups | Day 7 “A WC that deserves that title”

St.Galler Tagblatt wrote these days. “Good organisation, positive image, great advertisement” and more, these are slogans being quoted so often for big events. Considering the Women's World Floorball Championships such expressions are not just written words, they are a fact. St.Gallen – a great city, straightforward and spontaneous in supporting across the board (incl. police escort); about 600 volunteers, bending over backwards day and night to get everything done perfectly – in short an absolutely great thing! A BIG THANK YOU TO EVERYBODY!

Pick ups | Day 7 Spotted

The attendance sheet resembled a “Who is who” of the male floorball celebrities. Besides Thomas Berger, present during the whole tournament due to his job as executive director of the OK, the Swiss national players Antener, Schneider, Dysli, Hofbauer and head coach of Swiss men's team, Petteri Nykky, couldn't wait to see the ladies' performances. Also Philippe Soutter couldn't resist to show up. Not completely on his own accord, Mikael Karlberg, assistant coach of men's U19 team

Sweden, had to “spy out” the 8 best women teams of the tournament for Svenska Innebandyförbundet. In addition, former football coach Hanspeter Latour has been spotted – so the question arises: is he looking for some new job?!
